

GECIĆ | LAW

Elevating Excellence: Gecić Law Earns Top Rankings in Legal 500 EMEA 2026

Legal500

Gecić Law celebrates a landmark result in the Legal 500 EMEA 2026 guide, earning recognition in six practice areas, adding Employment this year. The firm now holds rankings in Competition; Commercial, Corporate and M&A; Banking and Finance; Projects and Energy; Dispute Resolution; and Employment. This excellent performance highlights the firm's continued growth, the depth of its talent, and the market's clear recognition of its ability to handle the most sophisticated legal matters in Serbia and across the wider region and beyond.

The Competition Practice

For the tenth year, Gecić Law's Competition practice remains ranked, maintaining its Tier 1 position in Serbia. This result confirms the team's long-standing strength in merger control, antitrust investigations, state aid, and complex cross-border competition matters throughout Europe.

Founding Partner Bogdan Gecić remains in the prestigious Hall of Fame for the fifth year, reinforcing his position among the market's most respected competition lawyers.

The editorial commentary further spotlights Anne MacGregor in her leadership role, heading the Brussels office and continuing to drive the future of the practice. Together, these recognitions reflect the strength, continuity, and ambition that define Gecić Law's Competition team.

Corporate and M&A

Gecić Law's Commercial, Corporate and M&A practice continues to earn strong market recognition for its work on sophisticated domestic and cross-border transactions. The team combines strategic commercial insight with precise execution and continues to support clients on complex investments, restructurings, and high-value corporate matters across key sectors.

The guide again recognizes Ognjen Colić as a Leading Partner, while Žarko Popović remains individually ranked in Corporate as a Leading Associate. Their continued recognition speaks to the strength of the practice and the confidence clients place in the team on demanding transactional work.

The editorial commentary also shines a light on the broader bench behind the practice's success and names Miodrag Jevtić and Bogdan Gecić among the key lawyers contributing to the team's growing reputation in the market.

Other Ranked Practices

Gecić Law has also secured a ranking in Banking and Finance, adding further momentum to this year's standout performance. The ranking reflects the firm's growing strength on finance-related mandates, including cross-border transactions, regulatory matters, compliance, and general banking work. The editorial commentary highlights Miodrag Jevtić and Miloš Petaković, underscoring the quality of the team behind this important result.

The firm also continues to earn recognition in Projects and Energy, where its work on transactions, infrastructure, energy transition, and regulatory matters keeps it at the forefront of developments in the sector. The editorial commentary highlights Ognjen Colić and Bogdan Gecić, reflecting the practice's strong leadership on strategically important mandates.

In Dispute Resolution, Gecić Law again demonstrates its ability to guide clients through complex commercial litigation, regulatory disputes, investment matters, and international arbitration. The editorial commentary highlights Miodrag Jevtić, Bogdan Gecić, and Ognjen Colić, showcasing the depth of experience that supports the firm's work.

This year's results carry particular significance because Employment joins the firm's recognized portfolio for the first time. That addition brings Gecić Law to a total of six ranked practice areas in the Legal 500 EMEA 2026 guide and marks another important milestone in the firm's development. It also reflects the firm's growing ability to support clients across the full spectrum of business-critical legal needs.

About The Legal 500

For decades, The Legal 500 has ranked law firms and lawyers through extensive independent research, client feedback, and market commentary. Its rankings remain among the legal market's most closely watched benchmarks and recognize firms that combine technical excellence, commercial judgment, and first-rate client service.

Contact:

Ivan Eftimov
BD Manager
ivan.eftimov@geciclaw.com
+381 64 180 8962